Traffic Regulations Enforced-Start on Track Removal From Dixon Square-Thefts by Small Boys-Season at the Beaches Starting in Well.

The traffic regulations in Westerly wheels and get money to go to the moving picture shows. are generally respected owing to the police vigilance, but once in a while ome thoughtless driver leaves his car neaded in an illegal direction and disappears from the view of police officers. Wednesday morning there was a law-offending car in front of the First Baptist church and it was there First Baptist church and it was there for haif an hour before the owner appeared. Policeman Ferguson was there, too, to give the offender warning not to repeat the offender warning not to repeat the offense and to hand him a printed copy of the traffic regulations. Councilman Francis G. Haswell, chairman of the highway committee was the offender and was committee, was the offender and was politely reprimanded by the police of-loer, who added that the example set by the councilman was not of the kind that should be emulated. In this, the councilman agreed, and promised com-pliance with the law in the future.

A gang of the construction force of the Norwich and Westerly Traction company, commenced Wednesday morning to remove a section of the track in Broad street which terminates at the Westerly High school, and is in part compliance with the orders of the town council to remove all tracks from Broad street and Dixon square, except those of the main line, thereby changing the terminal from the square to the railway station. Only the track that extends from the

Only the track that extends from the schoolhouse to a point just above the main entrance to the Memorial building will be removed at this time, so that the increased summer traffic will not be inconvenienced.

The section of trackage in Broad street is paved with granite blocks between the rails and for eighteen inches on the outside, while the balance of the street is of macadam construction. The trolley company will be required to leave the part of the structor now occupied by its tracks in as good condition as the rest of the roadbed, and that will be very easy and not expensive, as the road is already in poor condition. The paving blocks and rails taken from Broad street will be utilized in the construction of the new turnout in Railroad tion of the new turnout in Railroad avenue. It is understood that at the close of the summer season, the work will be resumed of removing the trackage in Dixon square, which is objectionable to the members of the

All the young thieves of Westerly are not yet in the state institutions, although they are committed there although they are committed there in blocks of five. At least two are at large and they are the boys who pur-loined from a storehouse in the rear of the H. B. Gavitt company store in of the H. B. Gavitt company store in Pawcatuck. These boys were not particular what they stole provided it was of brass or some salable material, for they took the four brass wheels with rubber tires from a casket truck and part of a silver rail used on a hearse. The robbery was reported to Patroiman Shelby Nicholas, who suspected two small boys residents of the Pierce street section of Wasterly. The assistance of Officers Mitchell and Ferguson, of the Westerly police force, was sught. The boys were soon located and the brass wheels of the casket truck recovered. The boys made an unsuccessful attempt to sell the wheels to a junk dealer, so they said, but denied the theft of the silver rail. The boys have not yet been atrested. Some expensive tools and other articles were stolen from the same place and, perhaps, by the same boys, who say they expected to sell the brass

But Pleasant View, located be-tween Watch Hill and Weekapaug, is visited by people of the so-called mid-dle class, not real wealthy, but pos-sessed of just enough to be enabled to enjoy the pleasures of life, among them a stay at the shore, where they can enjoy the sea breeze, the marine and country views, and still not be deprived of the main modern public conveniences. Present conditions at conveniences. Present conditions at the beaches of the town of Westerly augur well for a prospective season.

A motor-driven delivery car owned by Colonel Dick, manager of the Watch Hill house, was wrecked at Watch Hill Wednesday morning. In making a turn around a sharp corver the tire of one of the forward wheels was torn partailly off and the car was thrown over on its side and considerably damaged. The only occupant of the car was the driver and he was thrown out, his only injuries being slight bruises. The car was towed to a garage for repairs, which cannot be completed until new parts are received from the builders.

RED CROSS CALLS FOR MORE FUNDS FOR SALEM Thousands must Be Cared for Until

Work Can Be Obtained. Salem, Mass., July 1.—Both the American Red Cross and the state re-lief committee today emphasized anew the need of more funds for caring for the destitute fire sufferers. The state relief committee voted to reissue the appal for financial assistance made last Saturday night. Miss Mabel T. Boardman, chairman of the national relife board of the Red Cross, authorized the following statement to the general American public: "The need for assistance for Salem is much greater than at first believed. Thousands of persons have not only lost their homes, generally uninsured, but the destruction of the large mills has deprived them of their work. Thousands are living in tents and must be cared for until work and shelter can be obtained for them,

"Massachusetts has always given most generously for the sufferers of disasters in other parts of our coun-try. Her people deserve assistance in this serious calamity. The American Red Cross appeals to our people for funds to aid these thousands in distress, "Contributions may be sent to Gardiner M. Lane, treasurer of the Mass-achusetts branch of the Red Cross, to local Red Cross treasurers, or to the national headquarters of the Red Cross in Washington, P. C., for Salem."

ational Open Champion 1911 to 1913 "Pipe smoking gives added pleasure to a golfer when the pipe is filled with Tuxedo. Tuxedo provides more keen enjoyment than any other tobacco I know."

ALEX CAMPBELL Country Club, Brookline, Mass. "I am always glad to speak a good word for Tuxedo tobacco. Constant use of it only serves to make it better liked. Its fragrant, soothing flavor makes it the choice of many golfers."

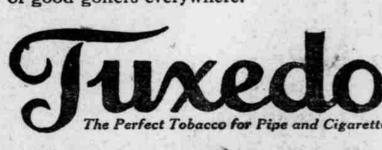

ALEX ROSS National Open Champion 1907, says: "Tuxedo, cool and mild, is essentially the smoke that satisfies.

Many of my fellow golfers agree with me in giving preference to

Tee Up! Smoke Up!

As satisfying as the sounding smack of the perfect drive, is the open-air relish of the perfect smoke-Tuxedo. Both go together, too. When you grab your bag and start for the links, grab up your tin of Tuxedo and take it along.

"Follow through" the snappy afternoon with Tuxedo. Put Tuxedo in your pipe and you will "put" the best. And at "the nine-teenth hole" rest up and relax with a good, solid smoke of Tuxedo. That's the advice of good golfers everywhere.

It's worth your while to try Tuxedo. Especially if a sensitive tongue prevents pipe smoking.

Tuxedo positively cannot bite-not even if you smoke pipeful after pipeful, as many as you can crowd into a day or a week.

Tuxedo is made of only the finest, choicest, selected leaves of perfectly aged Burley tobacco. It is made by the original "Tuxedo Process"which removes every trace of bite and sting and develops all the wonderful mildness, fragrance and flavor of the Burley Leaf in a way that no other brand of tobacco has ever successfully imitated.
